

A Message from Fred Astaire Dance Studios

“Hi everyone, we hope that you are safe at home and doing what you can to flatten the curve. On behalf of everyone at Fred Astaire Dance Studios our company leaders wanted to share with you a few things that we have been working on while we’ve been away from our studios and what we’re excited for when we are able to dance together again. We hope you’ll enjoy the video and we can’t wait to see you real soon.” – Luann Pulliam, President & CEO

“We are FADS strong. We are FADS strong. Our team of studios and staff and you are finding ways to stay engaged and positive and to help each other during these trying times. In fact, it’s so important and we are so proud of our FADS community.” – Charles & Jean Penatello, Stockholders

“We’ve been so touched by your phone calls, messages, and support.” – Rae Josephs, Stockholder & Chicago Metro Area Director

“Our instructors miss the energy and fun of teaching and dancing with students who become friends, sharing laughter and good times together. These are our best experiences.” – Pajmon Lipsey, Stockholder

“And our studio staff and professionals cannot wait to welcome you back.” – Rae Josephs, Stockholder & Chicago Metro Area Director

“Until we dance together again were making it easier for you. Remote studio classes and our online lessons platform help you keep up your dancing at home or wherever you are.” – Tony Dovolani, Co-National Dance Director

“With new steps, patterns, and dances, a new confidence in your achievements. Moments of triumph when a new move is mastered. That’s what it’s all about.” – Tad & Elizabeth Joy, Stockholders

“We’re already planning, big welcome back parties from coast to coast to celebrate the return to the studios and to share time with our students, our friends, and our new students that are joining the fun.” – Luann Pulliam, President & CEO

“Get ready for some serious fun because our studio practice parties, showcases, mini-matches, and coaching sessions are all coming back. In true FADS style bigger and better than ever.” – Stephen Knight & John Gates, Vice President & Executive Dance Director and Vice President & COO

“For everyone’s safety and wellbeing our studios will go through a deep cleaning before we reopen, and we’ll continue those enhanced cleaning practices after we open.” – Kim Haidinger, Stockholder & New England Area Director

“Through this experience we’re living our mission statement every day by enhancing lives through the positive, transforming, power of dance. That’s never been more important than it is right now.” – Sasha & Olga Bylim, Co-National Dance Director & Long Island Area Directors

“This is a very difficult time and we are so happy that you are so passionate about your dancing that you’re even dancing from home. But remember nothing, nothing can compare to a full-fledged dance floor that we’re keeping polished and cleaned for you to come back so we can actually share all of our dancing together. Remember, life is better when you dance.” – Bruno Collins, Stockholder & Central Florida Area Director
